Lt. Colonel Peter Gilbert

04/05/2019 — Our lunch speaker this week was Lt. Colonel Peter Gilbert. He is currently a U.S. Army War College Fellow at the Princeton University Woodrow Wilson School of Public & International Affairs. Colonel Gilbert spoke about some of his work at Princeton as well as his path in the Army to his present position.

He also gave us some perspectives on potential threats coming in the future, particularly the impact of artificial Intelligence and cyber warfare.

Kris Grudt

04/12/2019 - Our speaker today was Kris Grudt, the executive director of Princeton National Rowing.

Riverhorse Brewery

04/19/19 - Chris Walsh from the Riverhorse Brewery was our luncheon speaker on Friday. Chris spoke about the history of the brewery as well as the process that he and his partners went through to purchase the brewery.

He also gave us an idea of the kinds of beers and flavors that Riverhorse offers as well as insights into their current marketing and future plans.

Dictionary Project

04/19—Our club was busy putting together over 700 dictionaries for all the third grade students in the West Windsor-Plainboro school district. This is an annual project where we purchase the dictionaries, label them and then deliver them to the elementary schools in the district.

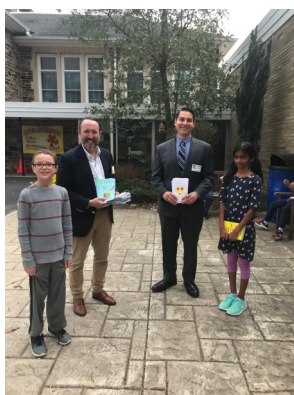

Thanks to President Jeff Gradone for coordinating this project and providing lunch for our hungry members. We will deliver them this week so stay tuned for further pictures at the schools. Thanks also to our members who helped label, pack and deliver these dictionaries.

Dictionary Project

04/19 - We distributed the dictionaries to all the third grade classes in WW-P school district. Our peerless crews were on-hand to give dictionaries to each class so thanks to all the schools for allowing us to delivery these books to their students.

News Around Town

April, 2019—One our longest standing members, Russ Schenkman, earned a Paul Harris award. These awards are giving to those within Rotary who give tangible and significant assistance to the furtherance of better understanding and friendly relations among peoples of the world.

Our current President, Jeff Gradone, made the presentation. Congratulations Russ!
