Elyse Ross

10/2/2020 — This Friday we heard from Elyse Ross a professional Genealogist. Elyse spoke about why people study Genealogy and create family trees -some of the reasons are to prove your family legends, discover new stories, solve mysteries, and learn about yourself. The process of researching your ancestry and setting up a tree starts with Yourself and then you work backward.

Her three tips were to: Be Organized, Stay on Track and Be prepared for the unexpected. There are different ways to track from paper to online systems and tons of places to find sources and records. It is important to save your sources and don't ignore evidence even if contrary to what you expected.

Steve Webb

11/13/2020 -Our speaker at our virtual lunch today was Steve Webb, co-owner of Aspire Studios. Steve is a visual story-teller who creates powerful images, video, animation etc. to help his clients achieve their marketing and engagement goals.

Steve spoke about the importance of how we present ourselves over video, some on-hand solutions to improve our situation, and even some advanced options.

His tips were very timely given that most of us are interacting on-line. He also gave some advice of equipment and accessories to further enhance our on-line presence. Thanks for sharing your expertise with the club.

Thanksgiving Memories

11/20/2020 -This week we expressed our gratitude for the club and shared wonderful Thanksgiving memories. Many members contributed memories of Thanksgivings past from loud Italian family gatherings, favorite dishes enjoyed during the holiday to a walk along the highway to meet family. After the meeting some members headed to Dan Sheridan for the annual Thanksgiving food drive donation.

Homefront and Thanksgiving Baskets

11/20/2020 -One of our longstanding traditions is to put together Thanksgiving baskets of food that will be donated to Homefront to assist families in need.

This year was no exception but we did have to adapt to the realities of the pandemic. Instead of gathering at the Hyatt to pack and transport these baskets, one of our members, Dan Sheridan, devised a low contact version of this process.

All the groceries were brought to Dan's house and packed by the member who brought it. We ended up with more than 20 baskets, which were transported to Homefront after our virtual meeting yesterday. Thanks to all who helped with this project. We wish you all a safe and wonderful Thanksgiving.
